SCVRD has conducted a review of the requirements in S.C. Code Ann. §1-23-120(J). The agency's authority to operate the VR program is codified in state law at Section 43-31-10 (The Vocational Rehabilitation Act of South Carolina). Federal authorizing legislation is the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (Public Law 113-128, 29 U.S.C. §3101, et seq.). Title IV of WIOA amended title I of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Federal regulations pertaining to the VR program are located within 34 C.F.R. part 361, 34 C.F.R. part 363 and 34 C.F.R. part 397. §361.50 requires the State Unit to develop and maintain written policies covering the nature and scope of each of the vocational rehabilitation services specified in §361.48. Historically, SCVRD has complied with the requirements to maintain written policies per federal regulation and these policies broadly meet the content requirements specified in section 43-31-80 of the S.C. code. Upon review of the requirements in S.C. Code §1-23-120(J), SCVRD has initiated action to promulgate required state regulations in order to fully comply with state requirements.*

AGENCY'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The Vocational Rehabilitation Department (SCVRD or VR) mission to prepare and assist eligible South Carolinians with disabilities to achieve and maintain competitive, integrated employment is being attained through an ever- sharpening focus on lasting, rewarding careers for the individuals served. The program is a state-federal partnership (21.3 percent state funding, 78.7 percent federal).

WIOA measures and associated challenges for SCVRD:

The agency and its national Vocational Rehabilitation colleagues have been focused on implementation of the federal Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA). Although this legislation was signed into law in 2014, federal guidance in implementation has been an ongoing process that continues to be developed, providing challenges in redesigning services and alignment of supporting operations. SCVRD has to date successfully met all the reporting deadlines of its parent agency, the U.S. Department of Education's Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA) for new WIOA data elements that must be collected. Beginning in July of 2017, the number of required data elements more than doubled, to 393, and reporting requirements increased from annual to quarterly submissions. They are used to determine the agency's success in attaining the common performance measures of WIOA:

- Percentage of program participants who are employed during the second quarter after exit
- Percentage of program participants who are employed during the fourth quarter after exit
- Median earnings of program participants who are employed during the second quarter after exit
- Percentage of program participants obtaining a recognized post-secondary credential or secondary school diploma during participation or within one year of exit
- Percentage of participants who are in education or training programs achieving measurable skills gains
- Effectiveness in serving employers:
 - Percentage of the state's businesses using employer services
 - Rate of repeat business customers within three years

These performance measures replaced longtime standards and indicators that RSA had used to gauge VR agency success in employment outcomes for people with disabilities. The new measures are held commonly with other core partners of WIOA: the Department of Employment and Workforce and SC Works, Adult Education, and Commission for the Blind. The partners worked together to develop a Unified State Plan in 2016. In accordance with WIOA, a modified State Plan was submitted to the U.S. Department of Labor and the U.S. Department of Education in 2018, and was approved. Partners will submit an updated State Plan in 2020.

While meeting all reporting requirements, VR is in a baseline period for establishing performance levels, which will eventually show levels of success in attainment of the new common performance measures and provide a basis for targets. The measures are focused on longer term results—retention in employment, earnings, the quality and impact of services VR provides, and how VR meets employer needs in providing employees who have the skills and credentials required for career success.

Unlike previous measures, these require assessing the status of participants well after their cases have closed. VR has entered into data sharing agreements for wage verification and post-exit data elements (education and employment data) to facilitate collection of required inputs for reporting.

The agency has had a longtime focus on school-to-work transition services and has devoted significant resources to maintain a strong presence in schools over the years. WIOA supports that focus and has taken it further by identifying a specific set of pre-employment transition services for which VR agencies are required to devote 15 percent of their federal allotments. These services, in addition to other transition services provided by VR, will enhance career opportunities for students with disabilities as they complete their high school years and move on to employment or to post-secondary education or other career training. Adaptation to the new requirements has necessitated changes in staffing, tracking of personnel time devoted specifically to provision of pre-employment transition services and further coordination of school and other agency partnerships associated with services to youths with disabilities.

Commissioner Felicia W. Johnson actively manages achievement of the agency mission, aligning efforts with the implementation of WIOA. Working with her management team and Board support, she conducts ongoing assessments of agency operations and spending. The required implementation of the new federally mandated performance measures and redirection of resources to meet mandates for pre-employment transition services revealed the need for significant internal restructuring efforts to attain required levels of programmatic achievement and resource efficiencies.

The agency has taken numerous steps to streamline its operations, including delayed vacancy postings for non-critical positions, reductions in part-time positions, placing a hold on reclassifications, increased coordination of travel, and other expenditure reductions. Vacancies are assessed to determine whether duties can be assigned to other staff with appropriate skill levels or if assistance from neighboring area offices is viable. Over the past two years, the number of active caseloads has been reduced from 285 to 251. Operational costs have been re-examined and reduced significantly. All actions have been evaluated through the lens of WIOA implementation and safeguarding the provision of quality services to program participants.

The examination and, when necessary, realignment of job descriptions, operations and resources are designed to put the agency in the best possible position to achieve high performance levels in the measures for which it is held accountable by state and federal officials, people with disabilities, employers, and the public.

Accomplishments during SFY2019:

- Return on investment: People with disabilities who exit the program with a successful employment outcome enhance the quality of their lives and their families' lives by earning income, lessening their reliance on government assistance, and stimulating the state's economy by paying taxes, making purchases, and ultimately contributing to the state's return on its investment in their services. Based on a cost benefit analysis for SFY2019 outcomes it is estimated that these rehabilitated consumers will pay back $4.49 for every dollar spent on their services by becoming taxpayers, repaying the cost of those services in approximately 3.9 years. The 25.40% annual rate of return remains one of the highest for the agency in many years.
- Successful employment outcomes: In support of realigning program expectations with the new WIOA common performance measures and mandates for provision of pre-employment transition services, the agency has strategically adjusted goals for successful employment outcomes during this period of transition. The agency assisted 4,930 consumers in achieving competitive, integrated employment during SFY 2019. VR served 31,108 people (including all applicants and consumers whose services may have carried over from previous years). Sixty-seven percent of the department's successfully rehabilitated consumers worked 35 or more hours per week.

- Palmetto Center: substance abuse recovery services continue to be provided at new facilities at Palmetto Center in Florence, which replaced deteriorated and outdated buildings. The new residential facility can accommodate up to 60 individuals for its 28-day residential substance abuse recovery program, addressing a significant need for South Carolinians with addiction to alcohol and other drugs.
- Project SEARCH, which provides education and job training to students with intellectual and developmental disabilities through on-site partnerships with major employers, grew to 14 locations. Students serve extended internships leading to permanent, competitive employment. Current locations for Project SEARCH include Anderson, Bennettsville, Columbia (two sites), Conway, Florence, Greenville, Moncks Corner, North Charleston, Seneca, Spartanburg, Rock Hill, Walterboro and West Columbia.
- Disability Mentoring Day also demonstrated sustained participation. This program, conducted by VR area offices throughout the state, connects students with disabilities with employers from fields of their interest and provides mentoring and job shadowing opportunities. More than 2,600 students participated in SFY2019.
- Partnerships with business and industry are vital for providing high quality career opportunities for consumers. In Conway, consumers are learning foundational skills that have helped more than ten become employed at Worksman Cycles, America's oldest bicycle manufacturer. At least one former VR consumer is employed in each area of Worksman's facility, from administration to welding to assembly to shipping. Consumers in Seneca and Aiken are receiving demand driven training through partnerships with Greenfield Industries and Bridgestone respectively. The general and specific skills they gain prepare them for opportunities with these and numerous other employers in their communities. Finally, an exciting new customized training has begun in West Columbia, where consumers are receiving intensive training for employment with Schneider Electric to meet their need for a pool of talented candidates to fill various positions.
- SCVRD administered a Jobs for America's Graduates (JAG) out of school grant for individuals who have left the traditional school system and are interested in completing requirements for a high school diploma or GED. The program provides counseling, employability and technical skills development, professional association, job development, and job placement services leading to a career after graduation and/or enrollment in a postsecondary education and training program. VR partners with Wil Lou Gray Opportunity School on this grant program.
- WIOA training was provided to all field, comprehensive and State Office staff, and topically driven trainings continue on an ongoing basis.
- After numerous years of operating a highly successful Professional Development and Leadership Program, in which hundreds of employees enhanced their leadership skills, the agency recognized the need to implement a more targeted leadership program for succession planning. The new Leadership Development Program (LDP) is highly individualized, focusing on specific agency roles. The program relies far less on classroom instruction and concentrates more on the workplace setting and requirements. To date, two staff members from the VR general program and three from Disability Determination Services have successfully completed the program.

AGENCY NAME:	VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION
AGENCY CODE:	H730	SECTION:	32

- The agency's administrative costs as a percentage of total operating expenditures remained stable at 5.2%.
- Safety for consumers and staff remained a priority, which was reflected in safety measure results. VR's experience modifier (EMOD) at all facilities statewide dropped from 1.02 to 1.00 (lower is better).
- Privacy and security were also at the forefront as the agency's privacy coordinator worked with all staff on precautions for protecting sensitive or confidential information of consumers or staff. The Information Technology Department coordinated cybersecurity awareness training that all required staff completed.
- External Communication was strong this fiscal year. News and event information shared through social media drew more than 1,200 likes and shares, and drove more than 1,000 individuals to the agency website for information. Because of this and other internet referral sources, the website received more than 97,000 visits and had more than 298,000 page views. A new "Getting Started" landing page for site visitors includes a short video on VR consumer services, questions to help them determine if we can help them accomplish their goals, and information on how to contact their local office to seek services.
- Internal Communication also saw improvements with further development of the VR Intranet as a hub for agency communication. This included the addition of more topical and training pages providing guidance to staff. A Communication Guide assists agency leadership in developing and delivering communication for their projects and initiatives. The page also allows electronic submission of items to the Communications Department for review.
- Despite staffing losses, the Disability Determination Services unit performed at high levels. This unit, which adjudicates Social Security disability claims, exceeded national and regional averages for documentation accuracy, and reduced its cost per case and average number of days required to complete each case.

Information about SCVRD that may be helpful in reviewing the accompanying agency accountability report for 2018-2019:

Main products, services and delivery methods

- Eligible applicants with disabilities have a program of services coordinated by their counselors at one of 31 local offices and 25 work training centers spread throughout the state. Together the consumer and VR staff develop an individualized plan for employment. Career options are explored and the consumer receives extensive counseling and guidance and vocational assessment. Other services may include physical restoration services, classes to enhance employability, job readiness training at the department's work training centers, or additional services leading to job placement. Successful, suitable employment in alignment with consumer interests is the outcome measure.
- Many consumers with significant physical disabilities benefit from services at the department's campus in West Columbia, such as a comprehensive evaluation to determine vocational potential; pain management; brain injury sessions to learn coping skills; physical therapy, aquatic therapy and muscular development; rehabilitation technology program which uses an engineering approach to overcome employment independent living barriers; and an information technology training program which provides consumers with a business community-driven training curriculum for technology jobs. Many of these same services are provided to Upstate consumers at the department's Bryant Center in Lyman.

- The department has specialized services such as cardiac rehabilitation; deaf and hard of hearing services; job retention services for employees of businesses throughout the state whose jobs are jeopardized by disabling conditions; supported employment (on-site job coaching); and substance abuse recovery services at an SCVRD residential treatment center in Florence.
- The department's 25 work training centers provide vital job readiness training for consumers and a cost- effective outsource agreement option for more than 400 business and industry partners statewide.
- The Social Security Disability Determination Services program, located in the Columbia, Greenville and Charleston areas, processes Supplemental Security Income and Social Security Disability Insurance claims for the Social Security Administration, and Medicaid disability claims for the Department of Health and Human Services.
- As of June 2019, the department had 989 employees in full-time equivalent positions and 282 employees in temporary positions.

Key customer segments and stakeholders

Primary customers (consumers): The department mission centers on preparing people with disabilities to secure, retain or regain employment. It does not provide lifelong services. To be eligible, an applicant must have a physical or mental impairment that substantially interferes with his or her ability to work. The person must also require and be able to benefit from vocational rehabilitation services that would lead to permanent, competitive employment. The department is unique in that its primary customers are people with more than 135 different physically and mentally disabling conditions. The consumer's expectation is to receive appropriate services that will result in successful employment that is consistent with their strengths, resources, priorities, concerns, abilities, capabilities, interests and informed choice.

- Business and industry partners: This includes employers who expect the agency to provide well-qualified, reliable employees; companies that provide customized training opportunities for in-demand careers, outsource work for consumers in job readiness training and who require high-quality, timely, and cost- effective production; companies that utilize job retention services, which help people whose jobs are jeopardized by disabling conditions; and businesses taking part in SCVRD work assessment, training, mentoring and job shadowing services. Business partners also include vendors who assist the agency in providing needed goods and services that contribute to successful employment outcomes for consumers.
- State and local agencies and private, non-profit organizations: SCVRD has hundreds of cooperative agreements with organizations throughout the state. These agency partners expect SCVRD to provide the competitive employment outcome component that their consumers need to round out the scope of services that bring newfound independence for people with disabilities.

- Taxpayers/legislators: The agency must be accountable in its service delivery and its practices, and provide results that show efficiency and effectiveness.

Risk Assessment and Mitigation Strategies

The most negative impact on the public as a result of any potential agency failure in accomplishing its goals and objectives would be that South Carolinians with disabilities would not have the necessary supports to prepare for, achieve and maintain competitive employment. In turn, the state's employers would not benefit from having as many qualified and well-prepared job candidates.

Should the agency experience such negative impact, outside help would be available through the Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA), U.S. Department of Education, which is the federal regulatory agency for the public vocational rehabilitation program. Historically, two consecutive years of substandard performance on primary indicators would trigger reviews by RSA. Several national technical assistance centers have also been established in various topical areas to assist vocational rehabilitation agencies in successfully meeting the requirements of service provision required by the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act.

General Assembly options in helping to resolve these issues could include (1) open communication between legislative committee members and the agency; (2) review and discussion of assistance/recommendations provided by RSA in the event that those recommendations did not result in improvements by the agency, to help the agency determine how it might improve upon its corrective actions; (3) review and discussion of assistance/recommendations provided by technical assistance centers in the event that those recommendations did not result in improvements by the agency, to help the agency determine how it might improve upon its corrective actions.

Restructuring Recommendations

The agency does not have any recommendations for restructuring.
